Saskatchewan Assessment
Management Agency

The Saskatchewan Assessment Management Agency (SAMA) develops assessment policy and provides property valuation services for Saskatchewan municipalities.

INDUSTRIAL APPRAISER

Assessment Services Division - Central Office

The Saskatchewan Assessment Management Agency (SAMA) is looking for an Appraiser to join the Industrial team.

SAMA's Industrial Appraisers are responsible for the valuation of heavy industrial properties such as steel producing facilities, natural resource mining facilities, oil and gas facilities, and associated resource production equipment and structures, and other industrial properties within Saskatchewan. This position requires a working knowledge of the three approaches to value together with the ability to apply the approaches to determine equitable values.

The successful candidate will be a self-starter; will possess the ability to work independently, and will have good organizational ability. You will enjoy meeting with the public and will be available for extensive travel throughout your assigned district.

As a minimum requirement, you will possess some formal training in property appraisal working towards an accreditation and/or possess a university degree in Administration, Economics, Agriculture, or other related discipline.

Salary on appointment will be determined based on education and experience. Some experience in computer applications is required.
