2022 Fall Education Symposium

COAST NISKU INN—SEPTEMBER 28-29

Day 1 - 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

9:00 a.m. Municipal Affairs Update

Executive Director Tory Bachman and Director (CIPA) Mike Minard will update members on a number of topics such as micro-generation, the assessment model review, DIP updates etc. and will take questions.

10:00 a.m. Presentation: Legal Issues and Case Law

Brownlee Law Team members have held an honoured place on the Symposium agenda and will bring a topic they've chosen related or linked to the current issues.

11:30 a.m. Grab Your Lunch for 12:00 p.m.

Webinar: Ways to Weigh Expert Evidence and Identify Fatal Gaps

Have you ever wrestled with weighing opinion evidence? One expert says "X" and the other says "Y." What course of action should a decision maker take?

Presenters: Carol Zukiwski and Justice Jean Cote

2:00 p.m. TOUR:

Leduc County's choice of sites related to the M&E theme-of-the day:

Chef Bombay and Chapman's Icecream

6:30 p.m. Networking

The Tour continues... After a brief return visit to the Hotel, buses will bring delegates to the Rig Hand Distillery for a brief site tour with taste testing and to end the day, catered meal by A Family Affair.

Day 2 - 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

9:00 a.m. Current Events/Issues

What's happening in the world of municipal assessment and taxation? 5 speakers, 5 topics for 5 - 10 minutes and your questions on BIAs, sub-classes, tax incentives, CEIP and the "new" POARA - the Professional Governance Act.

10:00 a.m. Assessment Audit Overview

The Audit Team will deconstruct the audit program and share some anecdotal information on the most recent audit, details audits and compliance reviews..

11:00 a.m. Panel: Non-DIP M&E

Just because it looks like machinery doesn't mean it's M&E...

Moderators Troy Birtles and Tessa Brady will guide panel members through a series of questions to spur follow-up conversations on issues facing Assessors regarding the assessment of Machinery and Equipment.
